

Cycling survey of MK adults, Mar24 - non-cyclists.xlsx

Results of responses of 103 non-cyclists, of which 67 female (only 7 non-cyclist respondents identified as male).

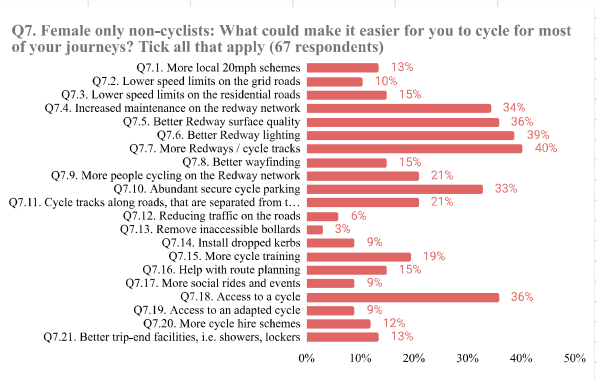

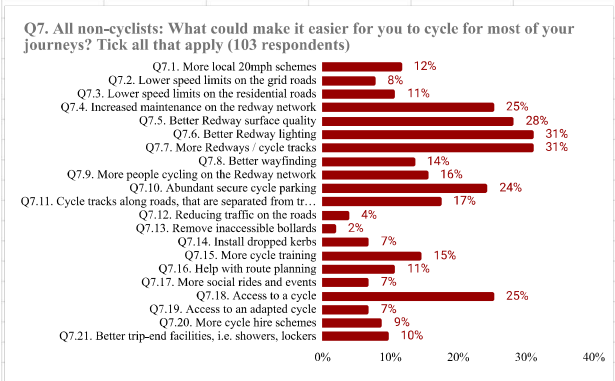

Top four reasons for not cycling are: Don't have or can't afford a good bike, Not confident cycling, Concerned about safety from collision, Concerned about harassment. 8% have a broken bike.

4 out of 5 non-cyclists would like to start cycling

Top improvements for cycling would be: More Redways, Better Redway lighting, Better Redway surface quality, Increased maintenance of Redways, Access to a cycle, Abundant secure cycle parking

Biggest perceived benefit of cycling is: Good for health and wellbeing. Improving carbon footprint and local air quality are lowest ranked.

